Child Safety Contact Person position description

Introduction	The purpose of this Child Safety Contact Person Position Description is to clearly define the role and responsibilities of a Child Safety Contact Person. It should be read in conjunction with the parish Child Safe Policy and Statement of Commitment to Child Safety .
Definitions	Key terms in this Child Safe Code of Conduct are defined in the parish Child Safe Policy and Statement of Commitment to Child Safety .
Statement of Commitment to Child Safety	Our parish is committed to the safety and wellbeing of children. For the children who belong to or visit our parish, we will provide a child safe environment. This means that we will act to ensure that children feel safe, are safe, and can participate appropriately, actively, and confidently in the divine services and in the broader life of our parish. We have zero tolerance for any form of harm to or abuse of children. This includes emotional abuse, neglect, physical abuse, and sexual abuse. Although our parish follows the traditions of the Russian Orthodox Church, it is multi-cultural and brings together families and individuals of diverse backgrounds, experiences, and needs. We value both our unity and our diversity and are committed to words and actions that make this clear to our children and the children who visit us. We have publicly available policies and procedures in place to support these commitments, and we will provide our clergy, office-bearers, and volunteers with the necessary information, training, and other resources to ensure that they are met. We take allegations and safety concerns seriously and will deal with them promptly and respectfully. They will be handled in accordance with our policies and procedures and, whenever necessary, New South Wales and other applicable Australian law. We will engage sensitively with survivors of abuse and actively seek their input into our policies, procedures, and training. We will particularly draw on the experience of survivors of abuse in our own Russian Orthodox community here in Australia. All who belong to or visit our parish will be advised of our commitment to child safety and of their role in ensuring the safety and wellbeing of children while here.
Children's participation	Our Russian Orthodox tradition is rich and multi-faceted. In the life of our parish, we preserve rites and customs developed over many centuries and in significantly different cultural settings. We value these things, the living expression of our Orthodox Christian faith, as a precious inheritance that we, in turn, hope to pass to our children and to their children.

To make this possible, we want our children to participate appropriately, actively, and confidently in the divine services and in the broader life of our parish. To this end, we will answer their questions, listen to their views, respect what they say, and provide them with opportunities to learn, read, sing, serve, and help.

Child Safety

Each year the parish Annual General Meeting will appoint two Child Safety Contact Persons. The Child Safety Contact Persons will be trusted parish members who have a demonstrated rapport with children and who have been assessed as suitable to work with them.
